PUBLIC OFFER TO PARTICIPATE IN A CLASS ACTION LAWSUIT

This public offer is addressed to individuals who have been subject to viewpoint-based censorship or discrimination by Instagram (Meta Platforms, Inc.) due to their political, ideological, or human rights-related positions.

The lawsuit is initiated and legally represented by HUMAN RIGHTS & ANALYTICAL HOUSE, INC., a nonprofit organization registered in Florida, USA.

Acceptance of this offer occurs by completing and submitting the attached participation form.

Terms:

— Participation is voluntary and free of charge (except for personal costs such as mailing, translation, or notarization).
— Representation is delegated to the organization for filing and managing the class action.
— Participants agree to provide truthful and accurate information.
— Compensation will be determined and approved by a U.S. court.
— Participants may choose to join publicly or confidentially.
— The total compensation fund resulting from a court ruling or settlement will be distributed equally among all confirmed participants. This model ensures fairness, transparency, and collective solidarity. The case seeks not only financial remedy but to uphold human rights and prevent future violations. Adjustments to distribution may be made if required by court order.

By joining this offer, the participant agrees to all terms above.
